Earth (Winter, Summer)
(#2 from Midnight Sun Songs)

for youth choir and piano trio

words and melodies by Mary-Anne Muyambo, Alisha Hardisty, and Aisling Dunn

music and arrangement by Jeffrey Ryan

commissioned by Northern Arts and Cultural Centre and the Gryphon Trio

Programme Note:

For the 2014/15 season, the Gryphon Trio partnered with the Northern Arts and Cultural Centre for a far-reaching instalment of the Trio's Listen Up! project. Students in six communities throughout Canada's Northwest Territories wrote poetry around the theme of The Elements, then worked with composers Jeffrey Ryan and Carmen Braden to develop melodies for their poetry. These melodies became the source material for Midnight Sun Songs, a collection of six songs for youth choir and piano trio composed and arranged by Jeffrey Ryan. Midnight Sun Songs received its world premiere in May 2015 at Yellowknife's Northern Arts and Cultural Centre, performed by a 70-voice youth choir comprised of students from the six participating communities, accompanied by the Gryphon Trio and conducted by Rob Kapilow.

Earth (Winter, Summer) is the second song of the collection, and explores the idea of Earth through the land and the seasons.

Performance Note:

Earth (Winter, Summer) may be performed separately, or in combination with any or all of the other Midnight Sun Songs.

Winter is coming Summer is ending so soon
Time to have cocoa

Oh how lovely the winter is White snow falling Days are getting better and better

Green, reluctant, agile, solid and springy
As it dips and sways, it bows to the earth and salutes the sky Twirling and flipping by and by

Tickling your toes and itching your nose:
Grass

Green, reluctant, agile, solid and springy
A soft and squishy blanket that covers the earth:
Grass
