commissioned by

and the Gryphon Trio

Programme Note:

For the 2014/15 season, the Gryphon Trio partnered with the Northern Arts and Cultural Centre for a far-reaching instalment of the Trio's Listen Up! project. Students in six communities throughout Canada's Northwest Territories wrote poetry around the theme of The Elements, then worked with composers Jeffrey Ryan and Carmen Braden to develop melodies for their poetry. These melodies became the source material for Midnight Sun Songs, a collection of six songs for youth choir and piano trio composed and arranged by Jeffrey Ryan. Midnight Sun Songs received its world premiere in May 2015 at Yellowknife's Northern Arts and Cultural Centre, performed by a 70-voice youth choir comprised of students from the six participating communities, accompanied by the Gryphon Trio and conducted by Rob Kapilow.

Water Dance is the third song of the collection, and explores Water through the many ways it manifests in our lives.

Performance Note:

Water Dance may be performed separately, or in combination with any or all of the other Midnight Sun Songs.

WATER DANCE

Water can be as cold as the Arctic ice
Or as warm as a summer day

Water is clear
Smells like nothing
Could sound like waves
Makes you feel fresh
But it tastes like nothing

Water is me
Water comes out of my eyes
Water is like glass
Water is my drink
Water is me

I can see it hit the bottom and hear it splash
I feel calm when the water falls and the liquid flows

Shimmering water, sparkling in the sun
Freezing are your toes
You soon start to slip, laughing with your friends
Soon we are warm, memories will last

Rivers run to seas
Run to oceans, run to waterfalls
Flowing gracefully, flowing freely, on and on

Dancing past a forest
River flowing, river roaring
Dancing to the waterfall, on and on
